MAINTAINING AND ORGANIZING CONTINUED SUPPORT FOR UKRAINE: AN EU AND SWEDISH PERSPECTIVE

The Stockholm Institute of Transition Economics (SITE) invites you to the annual SITE Development Day conference. In this year's conference, we will focus on the Russian war on Ukraine. We will hear influential voices from Ukraine, Belarus, the rest of the region and of course Sweden and Europe discuss the situation in Ukraine and neighbouring countries, how to organize support to Ukraine at the EU and national level in Sweden, and the impact of the energy crisis in Europe. Please see the full program below.

The open event will be held in the aula at the Stockholm School of Economics, on December 6, 2022. Lunch and coffee with buns will be served.
